Area for improvement	Oscar's behaviour has let him down this semester. He often finds himself in trouble for being a distraction to classmates around him. I encourage him to remain focused during the lesson. He is a talented child, we need to try and change his attitude to studying.

Area for improvement	Tanya is an enthusiastic and hardworking student, but she finds writing at a text level difficult. She can practise spelling and grammar to move on to creating longer texts in the future. To develop her writing ability she first needs to read much more at a text level, this will develop her understanding of text based English.
